

Boston, Aug. 27, 1852.

My Dear Friend:

116

I have just received your note in regard to the Harwich meeting. Our friends at Harwich say that they would like to have ^{C. C. Burleigh} ~~him~~ at the meeting, and you will see, by this week's Liberator, that I have announced him to be present — though I have done so at "hazard," not having had time to confer with him. I hope you will secure him at once. I hope to see Remond tomorrow. If not, will you engage him positively for Harwich, at Leicester?

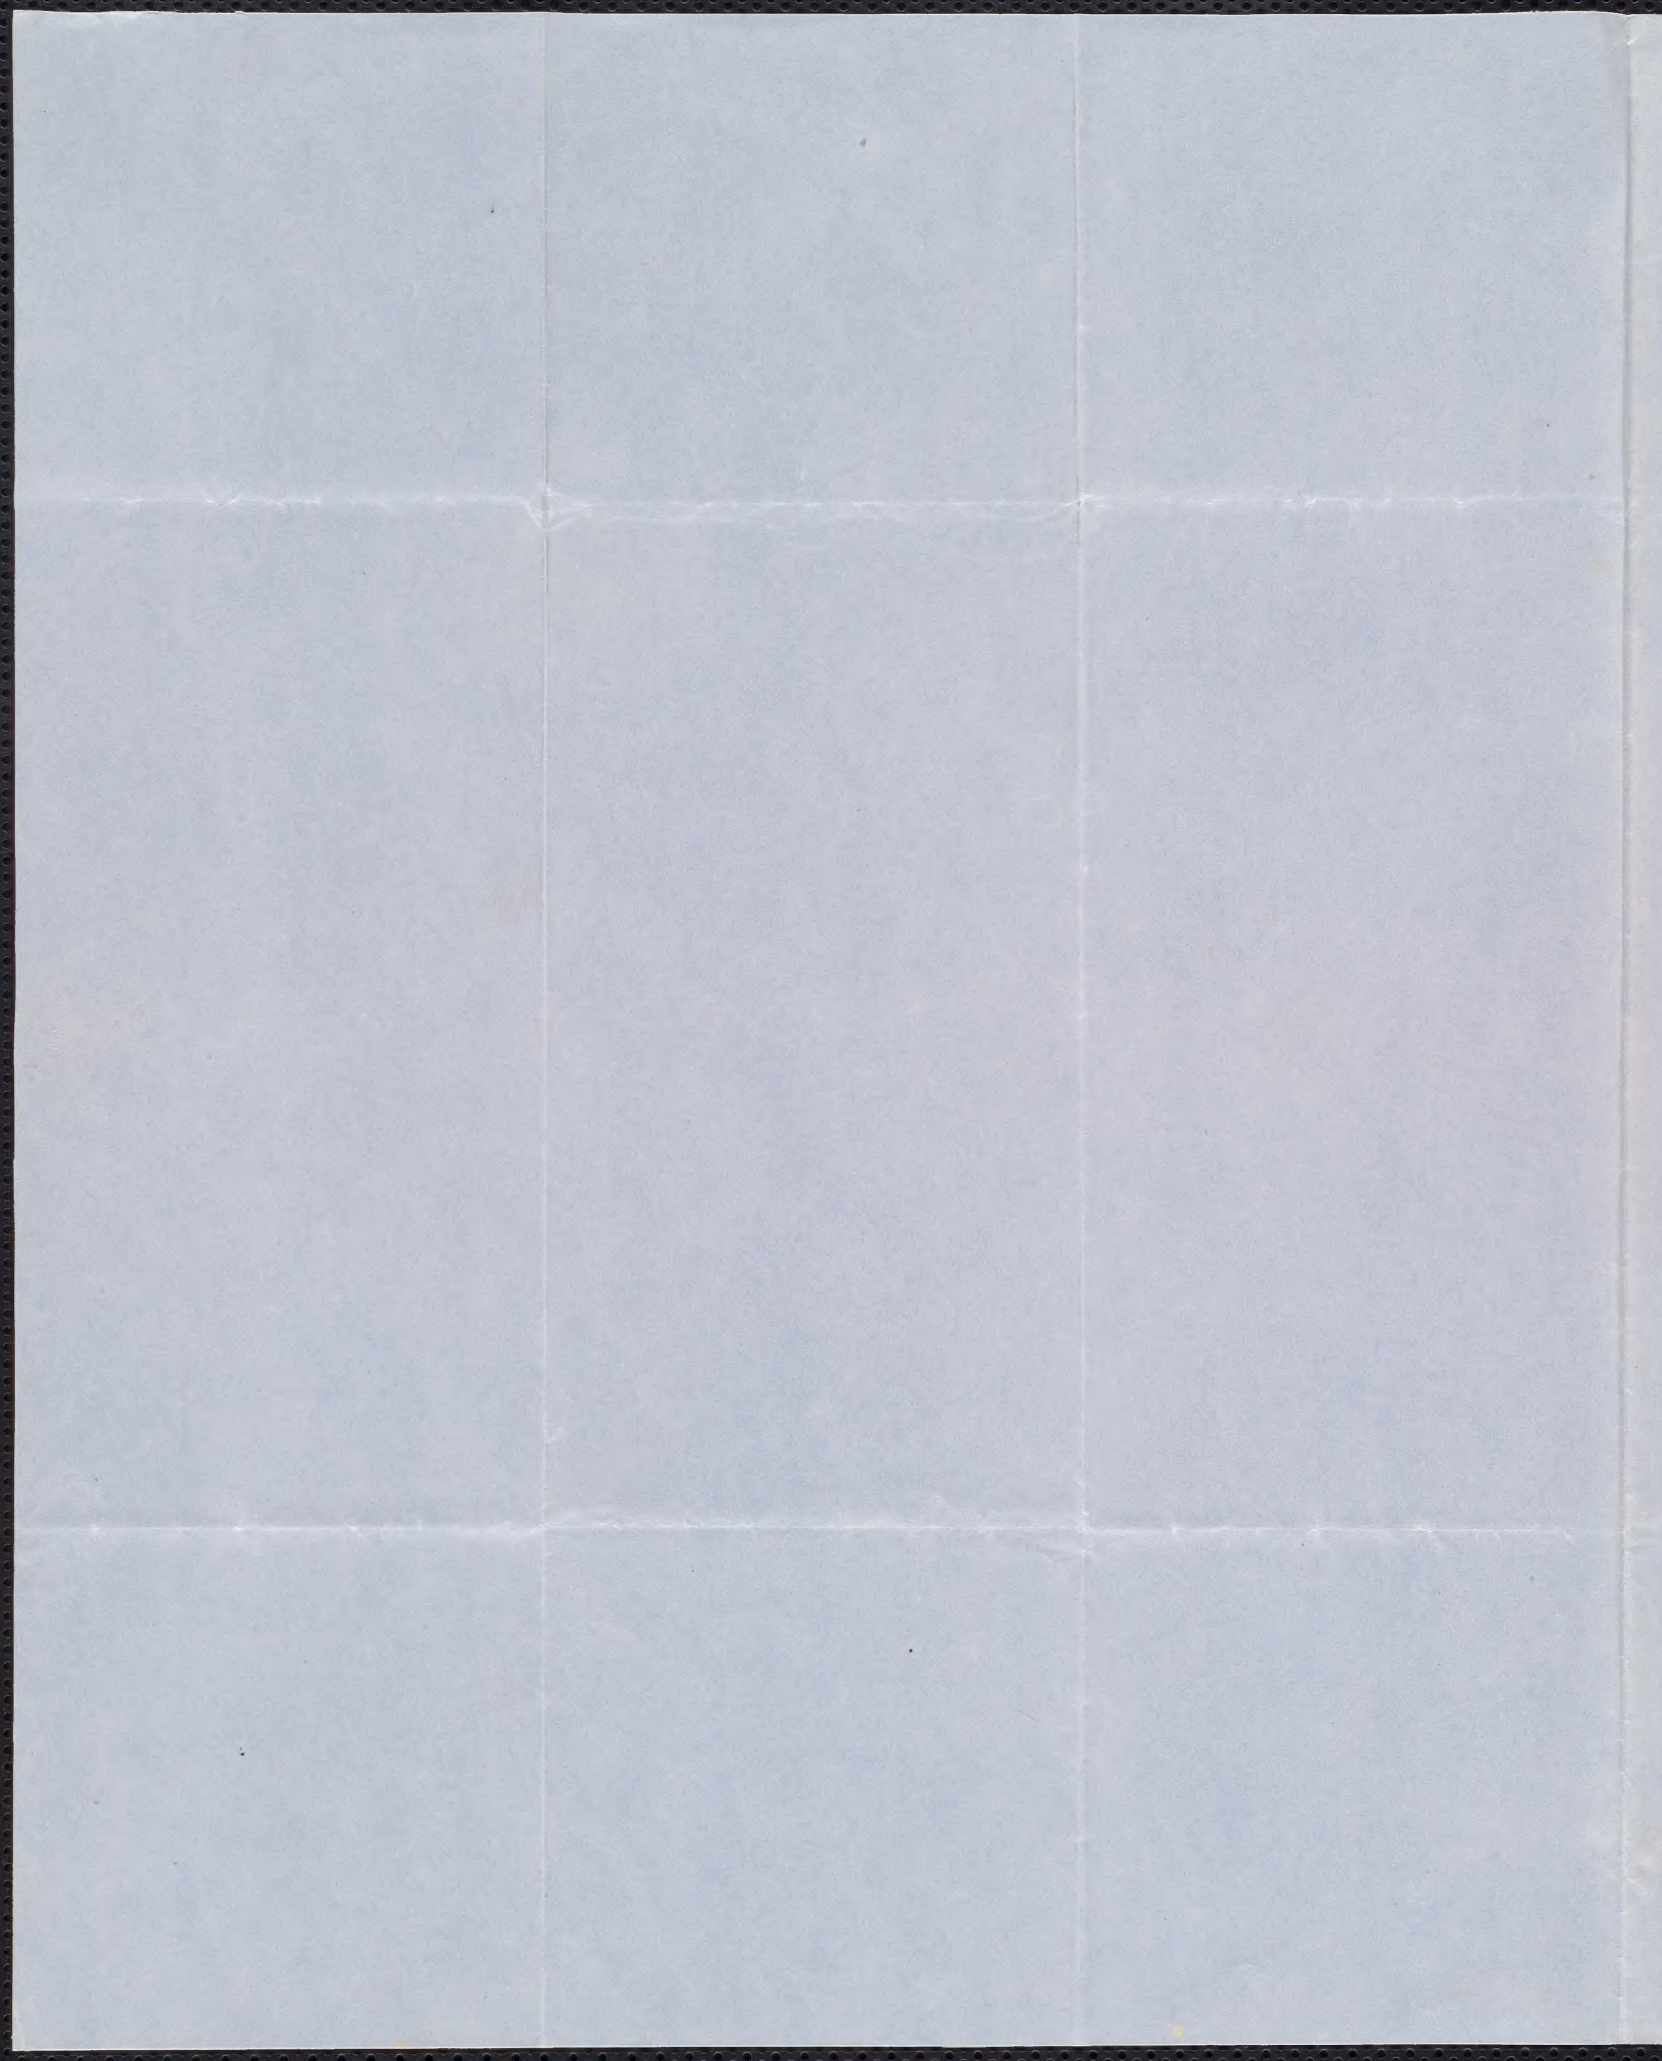

In great haste, with best regards to Mrs.

M.,

Yours, faithfully,

Wm. Lloyd Garrison.
